Your Adriatic Island Itinerary

Your gulet charter Adriatic islands should begin from Dubrovnik located in the southeastern semi-exclave of Croatia. This city dates back to the 7th century and has mesmerising mediaeval architecture and picturesque landscapes. It is also listed as a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Also known as the “pearl of Adriatic” gulet cruises Dubrovnik makes sure that your trip is not complete without signing up for the Game of Thrones Walking Tour and exploring the hidden caves. Make your way to Hvar island, Croatia’s most happening island, a destination for many celebrities as well as visitors from all across the globe. Known for its five-star luxury, beach bars, and secluded getaways. If you land in the summer you will be lucky enough to experience the lavender-covered swathes of land that not only add to the beauty but the lavender fragrance is everywhere.

With our rental cruise, you have the luxury to visit all the beautiful spots that the Adriatic sea has to offer so go ahead towards the Korcula island famously known as the birthplace of the world explorer Marco Polo. It lies just off the Dalmatian coast and is the second most populous Adriatic island, it offers a collection of hidden beaches and spectacular wine culture with unique dining options. The cobblestone streets and cute little shops will make you fall in love with this island. 23 miles from Dubrovnik, you will come across Mljet Island, an unspoiled island covered by a dense Mediterranean forest, and surrounded by rich marine life.

Our crewed gulet rental will also get you to Kornati Islands which you can reach only via a boat. Kornati Island is located in the northern part of Dalmatia and is a true masterpiece of Mother Nature. It consists of 89 islands itself and is a heritage of natural beauty and culture. Wrap up your gulet cruise trip in Split, the second-largest city of Croatia located in central southern Dalmatian county in Croatia. With its mediaeval old town and its coastal location, this place is worth a visit. Also, it has a classification as a UNESCO world heritage. Split has a lot of attractions from Roman Palace to the sweeping beaches and rocky coves, you are in for a ride.
