

Family Gulet Holidays

Gulet cruises offer a perfect family sea holiday, the spacious decks, ever changing scenery lots of swimming and sea sports, provide perfect opportunities for real fun in the sun for the whole family.

Children learn about new and different cultures, as you visit historic towns and ancient sites, what better way learn history, whilst experiencing things first hand.

A privately rented gulet means you have the Yacht as your own for the duration of the rental. You don't have to worry about other people being around, you can all totally relax and indulge in what you enjoy most. If some of the family want to go exploring on land, while the rest of the group want to stay aboard, everyone is happy and accommodated for. Also, with meals crew can adapt to your preferred options and times, as they will understand your individual needs and cater for them.

A gulet really does offer the perfect adventure experience for families. With beautiful destinations to embark from, including the Dalmatian coastline in Croatia which has more than 1,000 islands to explore and anchor around, embark from Historic Dubrovnik, or Split within easy reach of International airports. We have our own comfortable 6 cabin gulet Sirena based there too. You may also choose the classic Turkish Blue Voyage route in the the Aegean, or Mediterranean region, experience lots of culture, magnificent scenery, so much to see and explore. You could also select the fantastic Greek islands in the Aegean Sea, another splendid destination with many small islands to explore, with masses of culture and a history. So not only fantastic locations to visit, but a comfortable spacious yacht as your base, complete with a friendly and professional crew to assist and look after you, for meals and drinks and cleaning aboard. All is provided, bed linen great facilities. Meal packages are also flexible to suit your needs.

Family Gulet Holidays

We can organise everything in advance, so when you arrive with your family you can immediately relax aboard and enjoy your holiday. A really perfect family holiday, leaving you all with wonderful memories.

