

Cabin Charter Holiday in Croatia | Split to Split

Croatia has long been one of the most-visited tourist destinations around Europe. It's possible to see natural beauties with cabin charter Holiday in Croatia. As Gulet Broker, we are offering great deals for cabin charter holiday in Croatia with our beautiful gulets and experienced crews.

- Split

Split is the main urban, cultural and administration centre, for the Dalmatia region. It enjoys good road and sea links to the other main tourist resorts. It also enjoys a rich and colourful past and heritage. More recently it has undergone much reconstruction, resulting in a cosmopolitan Mediterranean tourist resort in its own right. As it is also a major port, it is perfectly positioned as a starting/finishing destination for Sailing yacht, or Crewed gulet charters.

- Trogir

Trogir town is a living museum, if you appreciate culture and historical architecture you will enjoy exploring this fine example. There is much that has been preserved from several periods, including; Gothic, Roman and Venetian. Trogir is also listed under the UNESCO heritage sites. Furthermore, it has an important shipbuilding industry, developed during the last century. Much to sightsee and explore whilst at this destination.

Cabin Charter Holiday in Croatia | Split to Split

- Primosten

✘ Primosten a small island, connected by a causeway to the mainland. It has a rich history and many places of cultural interest. Plus, it has been voted as having one of the top ten beaches in Croatia. Very impressive as you approach by sea, as part of your yacht tour programme.

- Skradin

This small town is situated on the mouth of the Krka river and is approached via an inlet. Skradin also hosts some very impressive waterfalls and marina. Its location is in an area of outstanding natural beauty, being also one of the oldest Croatian settlements and headquarters to the Krka National Park.

- Zut)

✘ There are no permanent settlements on this beautiful and unspoilt island. There is a fishing trade that exists around here, dating back centuries. The area is rich with flora and fauna, and also has many plant and animal sea species in the area. Anchor in perfect natural tranquility.

- Telascica

✘ This area has been established as a natural park, due to its outstanding plant and animal life. This bay also has very steep white impressive cliffs, providing a contrast to all the foliage from olive, pine and fig trees. The bay is a very special place to visit, also provides a safe and sheltered anchorage for your yacht.

Cabin Charter Holiday in Croatia | Split to Split

- Kaprije

✘ Yet another island of outstanding natural beauty, but this island also enjoys some history and cultural heritage. No cars are allowed on Kaprije, as a means of preserving its beautiful, natural, environment. The main industries here are; agriculture, fishing and tourism. Providing more opportunities for exploration and sightseeing, as you continue your gulet cruise.

- Sipan

✘ Maslinica is a picturesque settlement on Solta island, unspoilt by mass tourism, where it is still possible to enjoy peace and quiet. The neighbouring bays are rocky, but enjoy some degree isolation and privacy. A perfect relaxing way to end your tour, before disembarkation in Split.

Cabin Charter Holiday in Croatia | Split to Split

Cabin Charter Holiday in Croatia | Split to Split

