

Gulet Charter in Hvar

Considering a Gulet Charter in Hvar? We don't blame you. It's a wonderful place and boasts something for everyone. Let us tell you a little more about this up and coming destination and why you should definitely choose here for your sea vacation.

Hvar is the fourth largest of Croatia's islands at 182 square miles (300 square km) in size. It is even sunnier than Brac, getting almost 2,800 hours of sunshine per year. There is however enough rain to keep the island green and to maintain the beautiful fields of lavender, rosemary, sage, marjoram and thyme and the carefully cultivated vineyards. For this reason, many people remark that in the spring the island smells like a herbalist's shop! During your Gulet Charter in Hvar, you must purchase some lavender oil (or lavender itself), which is the main export of the island.

Hvar, and especially Hvar Town is increasingly building a reputation as something of an upmarket destination in Croatia. More recently, it has been a hotspot favoured by the rich and famous, who sail into town on their amazing yachts, much as you would do during your Gulet Charter in Hvar. It was none other than Prince Harry who famously fell into a pool whilst dancing at one of the happening bars, and Jay-Z, Beyoncé and Roman Abramovich have all been spotted soaking up the sun and culture here. There is plenty to do and enjoy in Hvar once you hop off of your luxury Gulet! It really is a beautiful island, and well worth a visit.
