

Split to Dubrovnik

Croatia is a beautiful country near the Adriatic Sea with its pure blue which makes it perfect for blue cruises. Also, there is a lot to see in the cities and towns of Croatia both in natural and historical meaning. You can check our offers for cabin charter holiday in Croatia and experience this lovely country.

- Split

Split is the main urban, cultural and administrative centre, for the Dalmatia region. It enjoys good road and sea links to the other main tourist resorts. It also enjoys a rich and colourful past and heritage. More recently it has undergone much reconstruction, resulting in a cosmopolitan Mediterranean tourist resort in its own right. As it is also a major port, it is perfectly positioned as a starting/finishing destination for Sailing yacht, or Crewed gulet charters.

Split to Dubrovnik

- Milna

Milna is a large important historic and cultural centre, that has special protection to preserve these features. There is a very large harbour and many religious buildings and churches, plus Works of art. Lisboa bay also has some Gothic church ruins. Closely situated to the harbour are some nice coves with sand and pebble beaches, providing ideal swim stops and yacht anchorages. These include; Pasika, Osibova, Lucie, Maslinova and Bobovisa.

- Hvar

Hvar town, on Hvar island, offers much history and culture and is also a very busy and popular tourist resort. Some of the attractions include the comfortable and agreeable climate, the pleasant natural environment. Plus, plenty of accommodation choices and local cuisine. It operates as an all year round resort, not just seasonal. As it is also fast becoming a chic and trendy choice, with the increase of Spa and sport and facilities. There are also many options for anchoring, whilst on your charter voyage.

Split to Dubrovnik

- Vis

Vis now rated as one of the top 5 Croatian holiday island resorts. However, this small island has a very different past. Whilst you will see evidence of several ancient historic sites, during the past century the island was used as a military base, because of its strategic position. It was made available in 2008. This beautiful island has many vineyards and superb beaches, plus the surrounding sea is rich with fish, mainly the blue variety (sardines, mackerel and anchovies) A perfect stopover, on your charter programme.

- Vis / Komiža)

Split to Dubrovnik

This small resort is located in a very deep bay on the western side of Vis island and enjoys a pleasant Mediterranean climate all year round. Interesting and sheltered anchorage.

- Korcula

Korcula island one of the greenest islands in the Adriatic sea. Along with the beautiful and natural environment, the island is also rich in history and culture (birthplace of Marco Polo) Korcula town is the main town on the island and has a history of shipbuilding. There are also numerous beaches and bays, ideal for providing sheltered relaxing yacht anchorages.

- Mljet

Split to Dubrovnik

Mljet is one of the larger Adriatic islands. Parts of which are National Parkland, due to its natural beauty and lakes. The island is also rich in history and culture and numerous bays and beach to explore from your gulet charter cruise.

- Sipan

Maslinica is a picturesque settlement on Solta island, unspoiled by mass tourism, where it is still possible to enjoy peace and quiet. The neighbouring bays are rocky but enjoy some degree isolation and privacy. A perfectly relaxing way to end your tour, before disembarkation in Split.

- Dubrovnik

Split to Dubrovnik

Possibly one of the most famous and historical cities on the whole Mediterranean. The city has a rich and cultural past and more recently has endured natural disasters and conflict. It still manages to retain its famous and important historic architecture. As well as being a special and interesting place to visit in its own right. It is also a popular port for Crewed gulet charter voyages Embarkation/Disembarkation and associated services.

Split to Dubrovnik

Split to Dubrovnik

Split to Dubrovnik

